Tribute To MY WIFE

My life with you was beautiful with many challenges, which we both over come them. I couldn't figure out many things, but now I do. It's sad, because it's too late, but I'm sure you're resting well wherever you're now my beloved wife.

My light went out on 5th of May, when my beloved wife kicked the bucket. It's was a terrible moment for me, we all believed she will recover from this ailment.

God in his infinite wisdom had other plans. She going to a heavenly home to be with her Maker. My dear wife wasn't only a wonderful wife and mother, but was a meticulously a housekeeper and homemaker. She was a cheerful, friendly person and made many warm friends with the love she has in her heart. Seldom, if ever, criticized any person. Instead, she preferred refer to their good deeds. She was the soul of honesty. She would never shade the truth no matter what the consequences.

She loved her church and was faithful to her Maker.

Anyo and I lived as husband and wife for 40 years with 5 beautiful children. All through this period she was my pillars of support. Our relationship started at a teenage years.

Anyo, I miss the wonderful moments and plans we've made with love.

Having you in my life, was the best dream come true, since you have lift this world, words can't describe the emptiness inside me. I get lost without you, but I'm sure you are with the Lord. You can no longer be seen by human eye, but your soul and love that you've given to many will never die.

Since you're with the maker, our children, grandchildren and I seek for your guidance and intercession in heaven.

Oh! My beloved wife I wish I could wake up from all these dream. I guess this is the way life goes. God's will must be accepted. "They say only the good die in their prime." Our love will forever be in the hearts of our children grandchildren and I will endeavor to do those things.

The memories we shared will never fade away, will it forever be in my heart till we meet again my beloved wife.

Oh!!! Anyo Dzudz) le)ntifafa me...

BROTHERS & SISTERS

Dear Sister, your untimely death is a big blow to us all. We are yet to come to terms with the brutal fact that you're no more. You have thrown us into untold agony, tears, pains and gloom. You have created a vacuum that will take our family years to fill or never.

Your untimely exit is an arduous challenge for us to handle. You touched so many lives in this world in different ways. You have created a big gap in our lives and that of the family that will never be closed but I know it is the will of God and we have no authority to question Him.

Oh death, there's no single home which your evil claws haven't scoured. There's no community where you have not caused tears of sorrow.

We are in deep agony, who shall bring you back? Who shall play your motherly and wifely roles? We wish we could turn back the hands of time.

We will never forget you.
We love you Sister but our Almighty Father loves you most.
May he grant you perfect rest.

Tribute By CHILDREN

If we had known that your demise would be this sudden, we would have drawn nigh our future so you could enjoy the fruit of your labor.

Until now, we thought death was news conveyed by newscasters to people who are far from us but little did we know that Death was just like a heavy cloud that hanged on individual houses ready to pour down when it's time is due. Oh!! Mummy we saw the tears filled in your eyes when we were leaving home to the hospital, little did we know that fear will finally find ways and means to grip our heart. We would feel how hard it was for you to say goodbye to us, as we are coiled in wonder deep inside our shells. I never knew you taking the last drop of water in my hand was your way of saying goodbye to us mummy. How do we tell our story when you (mummy) the story teller is not around to guide us through the various parts of it. It feels as though you have left us to fend for ourselves in this strange world.

Mummy with your kind heart and love will never die, you never discriminate, you share the love in your hearts with everyone around you. How is our path assured off danger if you aren't there to mark the right spots for us to follow. On this day, we cry our heart out to the world, for we have lost a vital team player, a coach, a mentor and above all a mother who is to mould, shape and prepare us towards the future.

CHILDREN

Mummy this agony in our hearts is too heavy to bear, who do we run to, cry to and smile to our dearest Emma, we wish to awake up from this dream, because is too hard to accept it in reality. The love we have for you can't be replaced with no other. But the almighty God knows best.

We your children, leave you with nothing but this piece of poem. We know you would have loved to stay with us but when duty calls, you dare not decline. We wish we could get a glimpse of where you are going Mummy. Baba, Baba me faniaw vevesese wo mia me dzi dzi na me.

Oh mummy hmmm.

GRAND CHILDREN

The sudden death of our dear grandmother has brought us to the understanding of what Paul says in Philippians 1:21 that “for me to live is Christ and to die is gain.”

Oh! grandma, we miss you so much. The emptiness of the space you have left in our lives is so deep, it will be difficult to fill. You left without saying goodbye, for this reason, we peer lovingly into light and darkness for a last glimpse so that even as you rest in peace, we may also find peace.

But also we do not see you, so we console ourselves that because you lie in the bosom of the Lord, we shall see you again.

Grandma, you were a wonderful living experience to us your grandchildren, you were a grandmother, a mentor and a pillar of support.

In paying tribute to our grandmother, we sincerely wish to praise the name of our Lord God almighty, a wonderful grandma we will remember you as a living, vital presence and your memory will bring refreshment to our hearts and strengthen us in times of trouble.

*Grandma , your grandchildren say ,
Rest in peace.
we will one day meet you in heaven*

Tribute By IN-LAWS

It's difficult to believe you are no longer here to share fraternity that binds us together. Who could have thought that laughter and dreams we always share together will eventually cease? But deep down within us, we know you didn't want to leave us, but we had no choice.

If we could be granted one last wish, we would ask for the day you left us to be replayed right from the beginning you received us as one of your children, treated us with so much love and care. We will not forget your Godly advice and counseling, we couldn't have asked for better mother-in-law.

You are one resting in Christ our hope in glory. Your glorious departure no doubt creates a vacuum because your kind is rare truly. God only takes the best with heavy heart, till you reunite again. You will always be on our mind & heart.

*We love you mother in-law.
Emma as we call you.
Rest in perfect peace*
