Biography of the late

Henry Kwasi Owusu Ansah

“For a thousand years in your sights are like a day that has just gone by, or like a watch in the night. You sweep men away in the sleep of death” (Ps 90:4-5)

Kwasi Owusu Ansah Henry was born to the late Mr. Ofori Owusu Ansah and madam Susana Boatema Adjei both from Akropong Akuapem on the 14th of March 1956.

He started his education at Nsawam and Akropong. He then proceeded to Suhum secondary Technical. After Successfully completing Suhum SUCTECH he gained admission to the Highways Authority for some time and later traveled to the U.S.A to continue his education and work there for some years.

Kwasi met his wife Angelina and they got married in 1996. By God's grace the marriage was blessed with a lovely boy Nana Frimpong.

Tribute by Siblings

“For our thoughts are not your thoughts neither are your ways our ways, said the Lord, For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and thoughts higher than your thoughts

(Ish: 55:8-9)

It is with a great sadness that we write this memorial.

Our words will not be the same without Kwasi in our daily lives. He was a wonderful brother and so generous he opens his hands to anyone who needed it. Our brother was funny and had a kind and gentle spirit he could literally make anyone laugh.

This was evident in the way he will crack jokes to make us laugh even on his sick bed ("Assembly, adapaa, otææle") Now it is finished.

Kwasi is with his maker watching over us as one of the newer angels. Kwasi the plan was to celebrate and give thanks

at the church after your recovery and not to be standing here today and reading your tribute at your funeral. Kwasi we know you have gone to worship your maker. We are thankful to God that you had a meaningful relationship while on earth.

Indeed we have lost a gem a cornerstone and an adviser we believe the Lord knows best. Won a wogyaw yæn mu

Tribute from

Nieces & Nephews

It is with deep sorrow and sadness that the nephews and nieces write this tribute. Uncle Kwesi was an uncle in a million; He was humble, kind, loving, caring, and compassionate at heart and had a gentle soul!!! We have suffered a tremendous loss.

"Jesus said I am the resurrection and the life. Those who believe in me, even though they die, will live again, and everyone who lives and believes in me will never die" - John 11 Verse 25-26

It came to us as a shock when we heard our beloved uncle's demise, although he wasn't well, we were hopeful that he was going to recover from his illness. Uncle Kwesi, as we affectionately called him, was the best uncle anyone could have growing up, he was the best uncle to all of us he was very kind, open minded and funny to hang out with for his jokes and interesting funny stories.

Growing up, we couldn't wait for Uncle Kwesi summer vacations from USA to Ghana, this was because, he would make sure everyone within the family - (young or old) will get something nice from his summer trips. We were always the topic of discussions at school after long vac holidays because, it was either a new American trainer in town or the nicest

Lacoste shirts for the boys in the family Uncle Kwesi generosity always went beyond the immediate family lines and would make sure our friends in the neighborhood gets something. Words cannot describe how this difficult moment, as we temporarily bid you farewell, we do it with heavy hearts, but we know that one day we will be joyfully reunited in the presence of God. We consider our selves blessed to have lived this life as your nieces and nephews.

Wofa Kwesi, you were and always will be an inspiration to us, the entire family and anyone who had the chance to get to know you. You have left a void in the family that will never be filled

While we mourn today, we also take comfort in the fact that your mission on earth has been fulfilled Uncle Kwesi, thank you so much for all the love, care advice, encouragement, and everything you've shared with us during your time on earth.

We know you will be there in heaven watching over us.

We smile knowing how grand your reward is!

We thank the Lord for your life.

We will forever miss your jokes and teasing.

Wofa, we will miss you so much we love you Uncle.

Live on in glory !!! Our dear Uncle Kwesi.

Tribute from Son

The Lord gave and the Lord has taken away. "Blessed be the name of the Lord" Seeing so many people here to say goodbye to my dad today shows just how loved he was and how much he will be missed. Writing this tribute sent me past memory lane. I still remember the sweet apples and ice cream you brought to visit. Any man can be a Father but it takes nobility, patience and sacrifice to be DAD. My dad was a hero, a strong support system, a hardworking and strong individual who was always there for everyone around him. He was selfless. He lived for others, always ready to help. He was highly principled and stood firm for what he believed and this was in the general interest of everyone. We all know you were sick for sometime but you were courageous and brave enough to keep fighting.

Yes! Death is inevitable but the loss of a loved one is undeniably painful. Without a word you just left us I am just thankful and lucky for all the wonderful years we spent together.

RIP DADDY I LOVE YOU VERY MUCH TILL WE MEET AGAIN.

Tribute from Wife

If we live, we live to the Lord and if we die we die for the Lord, so whether we live or whether we die, we belong to the lord's. Roman 14:8(NIV).

Today is a sad day in my life, as with a painful heart, bid my loving husband Kwasi Owusu Ansah farewell, whom I affectionately called Kwasi. My husband was a friend, a brother and my everything. My love and darling whom I met in 1996, was a lovely gentle man full of knowledge and wisdom, in fact very intelligent. Kwasi and I became friends, which led to marriage due to his caring and lovely approach in life challenges, we were blessed with a son Nana, whom you cared for by playing both fatherly and motherly role at the same time due to the nature of my job. Kwasi, your death came as a shock to us, because on your sick bed, you were in good spirits full of positive vibes. My current affairs lecturer, who will be 'gisting' me the happenings in Ghana now, oh death you have really stolen a treasured jewel from me. Hmmm your words of encouragement will always echo in my mind, such as, whatever has a beginning has an end and always telling me to be patience. My love, thank you for all the care and love you showed me and our only child. Eiiiiii yooo, our hope is the Lord since He knows best. May the almighty God grant your soul a peaceful rest in His bosom.

Tribute by Laud

Then I heard a voice from the heaven saying "blessed are the dead who die in the lord from now on. Yes says the spirit."They will rest from their labor for their deeds will follow them . Rev14:13

Time over rolling streams because all its goes away, they fly forgotten as a dream dies at the open day death oh death why have you treated us so? How can we loose you at your prime age of 67.

Parting has been a very difficult one but there is nothing I can do but to accept it. If tears could bring you back to life, I would have brought you back to life. I will do everything within my power to bring you back to life.

Now I walk alone, I have decisions alone, I do things alone, I walk on the streets and talk to myself. I no longer discuss with anyone Indeed to everything there is a season a time for every purpose under heaven. A time to be born and a time to die(Eccl 3:1&2) with dep sorrows and sadness I pay you this tribute. My Aaron,

My chairman, my counselor my encouragement my inspiration.

I remember and recall our experience at the court, the police headquarter, New light chapel, the church Land issue.

Your legacy for the church will be continued, the family life ministry and the ministry for the orphans, wisdom and prisons will all be continued and pursued.

The church, My wife and children all mourn you and fervently remember you.

We are thankful to God for lending us a gift like you. We will miss you greatly and deeply. Your memory will always be with us for a longtime. May the good Lord keep your safe till we meet again.
