≡ BIOGRAPHY OF THE LATE MICAH NANA TAWIAH FENI ≡

Micah Nana Tawiah Feni, born on March 23, 1988, in Madina-Accra, was a remarkable individual whose life was filled with achievements and meaningful moments. He was born to the late Pastor Joseph and Adelaide Feni, who instilled in him strong values and a sense of purpose.

Micah started his basic and junior high education at FOSCO DEMONSTRATION-ASSIN FOSU between the years 1999 and 2004. His educational journey took him to Pentecost Secondary High School in Koforidua, where he laid the foundation for his future accomplishments and completed it in 2007. His dedication and hard work were evident as he pursued higher education at Pentecost University College between 2008 and 2012, which ultimately earned him a bachelor's degree in marketing in 2012. Micah's academic achievements were only a part of his story. He possessed a genuine passion for connecting with people and making a positive impact. He was known for his warm personality, which attracted friends and acquaintances from all walks of life. His ability to empathize and lend a helping hand endeared him to those around him. Beyond his educational pursuits, Micah's professional endeavours showcased his commitment and ambition when his work journey started by joining MV Company as his first employer. Thereafter, he joined Enterprise Insurance Ghana. He again took on a side role with the IOLP Institute, where his expertise and passion for marketing shone brightly. His contributions to both companies undoubtedly left a lasting mark and contributed to the growth and success of the organizations.

Micah's life took a significant turn as he ventured into politics, joining the NPP family. His decision to engage in public service showcased his passion for creating positive change within his community and beyond. He had the opportunity to influence policies and contribute to the betterment of society in his own small way.

Born into the Apostolic Church of Ghana by the late parents, Pastor Joseph and Adelaide Feni, Micah later joined The Church of Pentecost Madina English Assembly, where he worshipped and served his Maker throughout his stay in Accra. He greatly participated in most of the Assembly's activities and initiatives. His commitment to giving back reflected his compassionate nature and his belief in the power of collective efforts to effect change.

Micah's life was not solely defined by his educational and professional achievements and spiritual connections. He was known for his warm and caring nature, making friends easily and forming strong connections wherever he went. His genuine interest in people and his willingness to help made him a beloved figure among his peers and colleagues.

While his time on Earth was tragically brief, Micah Feni's legacy lives on in the hearts and memories of those who had the privilege of knowing him. He exemplified the values of dedication, kindness, and hard work, leaving an indelible mark and legacy that serve as a guiding light for us all.

Micah Nana Tawiah Feni,

2 Samuel 1:27 How are the mighty fallen, and the weapons of war perished!

As we gather here today, our hearts are heavy with sorrow as we mourn a beloved brother whose presence in our lives was a gift beyond measure. We are broken as we read this tribute as it's being read sooner than expected. If God was to grant us the opportunity for a wish, it would be to bring you back to us cos we miss you dearly.

Micah, you were more than a brother to us; you were a friend, a confidant, and a source of endless joy. Your warm smile could light up a room, and your laughter was infectious, bringing happiness to even the darkest of days. We shared countless moments of laughter, tears, and dreams that will forever remain etched in our minds. Your kindness and compassion knew no bounds. You had a remarkable ability to make each of us feel valued and cherished, no matter the circumstances. Your support and encouragement were unwavering, reminding us that we were never alone on our journeys. Since we knew our brother Micah, he has always been a cheerful person, a peacemaker, an adviser, and a hardworking man who cannot rest unless others are satisfied. Micah, your death came as a great shock to us. We never knew you would leave us so soon. Glory be to God almighty, for his will must be done.

Having not recovered from the impact of the demise of both Dada and Mama, there comes your sudden death, which came to crush us. We never knew you would leave us so soon. Nana why? We can only take solace in the fact that you have been embraced by Mama, Dada, and in the bosom of our Lord Almighty.

We will remember and miss your great taste in fashion. The times we've shared, the times you have been there just to care, those times of heartaches and of pain, those times of hurts and gains, those times of triumphs and loss. We are reminded of the values you held dear: love, compassion, and the importance of giving back. Your involvement in charitable endeavours and willingness to lend a helping hand to those in need exemplified your selfless nature as we bid you farewell. Though your physical presence may no longer grace our lives, your spirit continues to guide us. You taught us to cherish every moment, to embrace each other with love, and to face life's challenges with courage.

Micah, our dear brother, your memory is a treasure we hold dear. Your legacy lives on in the lives you touched and the hearts you uplifted. We find solace in knowing that you are at peace, watching over us from above.

Rest well, dear Micah, until we meet again. You will forever remain a part of us, and your light will continue to shine in the stories we share, the laughter we echo, and the love we carry in our hearts.

With eternal love,

Esther, Deborah, Andy, Abigail, and Christabel

Dear Micah

In the stillness of the night, our hearts ache with heavyweight, for the one we love with all our might is gone and has left a space.

As we sit here and reflect on all the moments we've shared, our hearts overflow with gratitude and love for you. We cherish the memories of our laughter-filled days, the shared tears during difficult times, and the fights we've been through. One of the most cherished memories we will forever miss, is how you were used to calling every lady 'sis' whenever you came home.

On this day, we want you to know that you are cherished beyond measure. Your presence in our lives was a blessing, and we are forever grateful. We love you more than words can express, and we hope this tribute serves as a small token of the love and respect we have for you, Micah.

Till we meet again in a better place, Rest Well Micah Nana Kwaku Tawiah Feni.

"My flesh and my heart may fail, but God is the strength of my heart and my portion forever." Psalm 73:26

≡ TRIBUTE TO MR. MICAH TAWIAH FENI BY ENTERPRISE LIFE ≡

Life they say is in stages and as the Bible says in Ecclesiastes 3:1 "there are times and seasons for everything under the sun".

Micah first started his career as part of the Transitions Sales Team with our sister company Transitions in October 2016. The Team later became part of the Enterprise Life Sales Team. His enthusiasm and charismatic personality towards the job and his colleagues were readily apparent. Clearly, with his personality we all knew he will have an outstanding career in sales. This first encounter marked the beginning of our longstanding professional and personal friendship.

Micah dutifully applied and offered himself for every training and development program of Enterprise Life and gave off all his best.

His life was a blessing to many of us and it was always a joy being around him. We never regretted having him in the company.

Micah, your memory will remain in our hearts forever. He was such a strong person with a firm heart who played a critical role in organizing events in his team.

He was so committed to his work to a point where even when sales was tough, he will still soldier on and encourage the rest of the team to give off their best. Honesty and discipline were some of his hallmarks.

He was a man full of laughter and will always go the extra mile to make a smile out of you notwithstanding your relationship with him. Having worked and travelled with Micah over the years, his love for his family and friends and the things of God were never far from his thoughts.

The whole Branch and Enterprise Life were left in shock on the day when news broke out that you passed on to eternal glory.

At this point, may I ask my Fellow Life Planners to be on their feet as we do the Enterprise Chant for our dear departed colleague.

Who are we?

We are Missionaries of Life We offer Peace of Mind

We are Different and Better

We believe in?

Micah, here are your colleagues who were fervently waiting to welcome you, but man cannot oppose what is destined to happen.

A mighty Thoroughbred has fallen. Indeed, we have lost a great man and a gem. Micah, we will surely miss your jokes, counselling, and beautiful smile.

As we stand in pain and with heavy hearts, we take solace in the fact that you did not just pass through Enterprise Life, but you have left a footprint that cannot be erased.

Fare thee well Fellow Thorough bred!

≡ TRIBUTE BY IOLP INSTITUTE OF THE LATE MICAH TAWIAH KWAKU FENI ≡

Then I heard a voice from heaven say, "Write this Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on, "YES" says the Spirit, they will rest from their labour, for their deeds will follow them (Rev. 14:13).

Joining the team was a great decision because your output during the interview made you stand out and promising to the corporate strategy.

The onboarding process was good because you easily connected to other team members and eched your virtue of kindness with every relationship created which you needed to sustain.

Your sense of responsibility and the determination to succeed is a virtue we will "All" miss.

You turned up to work when you were really not looking good and Boss told you to take some days off and rest. We were in high hopes to see you again even after visiting you in the hospital.

We were looking forward to your contribution for the new social media videos we wanted to put up to drive the Institute but the master decided to call you home to eternal rest.

Micah we will miss you now and for the foreseeable future.

May your good deeds follow you.

Rest in Perfect peace,

Micah!, the Praises and Worship Leader who led us in our congregational worship.
Micah!, Because of you, most of us never missed worship as we sung and danced together in praising God.
Wherever there was Praises & Worship, Micah's presence was felt!!
Micah!, was the Course Rep for Business Class and House 2 Prefect.
Micah!, your passing has left a deep void in our hearts . As we come together to remember your life, we fondly recall the times we spent together, as classmates and as friends. Your presence brightened the room, and your humility touched us all.
Throughout our journey as classmates, you stood out as someone who exemplified true humility. You quietly pursued your passions, always offering a helping hand and supporting those around you. You were lively and full of humour who brought joy and excitement whenever we were down.
During our time together, you were never hesitant to lend a helping hand, whether it was assisting a struggling classmate with their studies or offering a word of encouragement during challenging times. Your selflessness and genuine care for others brought solace and unity .
Micah, your quiet demeanor and gentle nature remind us to approach our own achievements with grace, while also uplifting and celebrating the accomplishments of those around us.
It takes incredible strength and humility to recognize our own flaws and to actively work towards self-improvement. We noticed the genuine effort you put into reflecting on past actions and learning from them, and it truly inspires us. Your willingness to take responsibility for your mistakes is not only admirable but also a testament to your maturity and growth.
As we farewell you, our humble classmate, we take solace in knowing that you have left an indelible mark on our hearts and ignited a flame of humility that will forever guide us. Your legacy will live on through the memories we shared and the values you taught us.
Though you may be gone, your spirit lives on, reminding us all to embrace humility and treat one another with love and respect.

Rest peacefully *TRIGA BERIMAH!!*
Rest peacefully *T-PAIN!!* .

T. Pain as we affectionately called you . You were such a vibrant, selfless, humble, hardworking and easy to go young man. You were readily available and always around to help or support a friend in need or during a program.
There was never a dull moment with Micah. During our SRC celebrations you vibrantly organized us for the activities.
And mostly in the evenings you organized Sarfo hall boys for JAMA sessions. Oh Micah you were always present at a colleague's programme and when given a role to play , you did it with passion and without complaints.
One significant thing about you is your infectious smile. You gained the name " ORGANA" because of how you efficiently and effectively organized programs, parties and other activities. How can we forget your sense of fashion , you were always on top of your dressing game. Micah we were all waiting for your wedding invitation not this. We were all shocked when your departure was announced on our page.
The why, when and how come questions were flowing on our marketing page. Oh T. Pain why did u leave so soon? How come we never heard of your sickness because you were full of life. When did you get to this latter stage.
Micah you made marketing an enviable course for other students on PUC campus.

Hmmm life is indeed short.
Micah rest well
T. Pain rest in perfect peace

CELEBRATING THE LIFE OF OUR DEAR MICAH NANA TAWIAH FENI

Dear Brothers and Sisters,

Today, we gather with mixed emotions to honour and remember our dear friend and fellow member of the Madina English Assembly, Micah Nana Tawiah Feni. It's not easy saying goodbye, but let's take a moment to reflect on the wonderful times we shared, and the positive impact Micah had on all of us.

Micah was truly one of a kind – the kind of person who could light up a room with his infectious smile and approachable nature. He had this incredible flair for making everyone feel like an old friend, whether you've known him for years or just met him. His ability to connect with people was a gift we were lucky to experience. Let's take a moment to find comfort in these words from:

1 Thessalonians 4:13-14 (NIV) "Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him."

Micah's sudden departure reminds us to cherish every single moment. While we feel the weight of his absence, let's also celebrate the incredible legacy he's left behind – a legacy of kindness, faith, and love. Remember these comforting words too:

Revelation 21:4 (NIV) "He will wipe every tear from their eyes. There will be no more death or mourning or crying or pain, for the old order of things has passed away."

While it's tough to say goodbye, let's take heart in knowing that Micah has moved on to a place of peace and rest. He's in the presence of our loving Creator, free from pain and worries. And while we miss him dearly, we can also find strength in each other and the memories we hold close.

Let's continue to keep Micah in our thoughts and prayers, and let's carry forward his legacy of love, faith, and selflessness. As we move on together, let's support one another just as Micah would have done.

Farewell for now, our dear Micah Nana Tawiah Feni. Your spirit will forever be a part of our church family, and your example will continue to guide us in our journey of faith and community.

With heartfelt love,
Madina English Assembly, Church of Pentecost
