OF THE LATE MR. ROBERT DANIELS
(A.K.A KOJO ESSANDOH)

“He will wipe away every tear from their eyes and death shall be no more death, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain anymore, for the former things have passed away.”
Revelation 21:4

Robert Daniels, was born on 8th August 1966 in the city of Takoradi, to parents, Obaapanyin Efua Maanan and Agya Kojo Andoh both of blessed memory. He was the fifth child among seven siblings in his family.

His educational journey began at Wood Methodist Primary School in Takoradi, where he completed his elementary education. Right from the start, Robert’s determination and brilliance shone through, earning him praise for his academic achievements.

Advancing to middle school, Robert continued to excel, as he passed his Certificate examination with flying colors. This success set the stage for his journey into the world of carpentry and furniture making, an art he was intensely passionate about

As an apprentice, Robert dedicated four years to mastering the craft of carpentry, skillfully shaping wood into beautiful creations. With an unquenchable appetite for growth, he invested an additional two years in improving his expertise in furniture making.

During this period, Robert found himself at Musama Disco Christo Church in Takoradi, where he found not only spiritual comfort but also the love of his life. It was here that he crossed paths with Miss Patricia Aboagye, and in 1989, they sealed their love with vows, embarking on a remarkable journey of togetherness and affection.

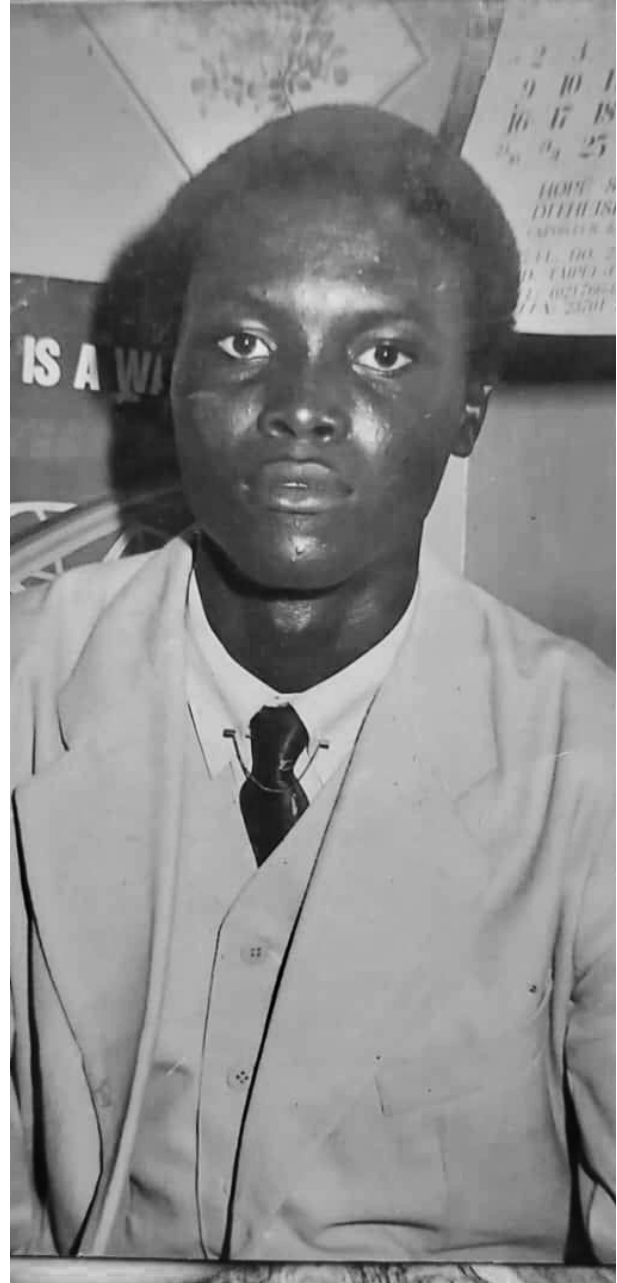

In 1990, he decided to pursue new opportunities in Accra, seeking greener pastures for his family.

Upon arrival in Sakora, Madina, serendipity introduced him to Mr. Kojo Light, a friend whose guidance led him to the world of building construction. This marked a significant turning point in his career, where he dedicated himself to this new field with unwavering commitment and diligence. Among his notable contributions, he played a significant role in the construction of the La Nkwantanang D/A School and The Fort Green Hotel, among other projects.

Known by all as a hardworking and determined man, He left a lasting impression on colleagues, friends, and family. His selflessness and approachable nature endeared him to everyone who had the privilege of knowing him.

His devotion to his faith led him to find the Musama Disco Christo Church in Madina, where he became a consistent and outspoken member. His strong beliefs and dedication earned him the honorable position of church elder, a role he embraced with humility and grace.

Known by all as a hardworking and determined man, He left a lasting impression on colleagues, friends, and family.

He was also appointed as the Circuit Porter for the Bubuashie Circuit.

His commitment to the church community was resolute. For years, he stood as a beacon of faith and hope, nurturing the spiritual growth of countless individuals. He was known to be kindhearted, generous and affable.

Beyond his professional and spiritual pursuits, Robert had a strong passion for music. He immersed himself in learning to play the piano, bass guitar, and drums. He instilled this spirit of music into his children, teaching them to appreciate the beauty it brings to the soul. He also carried a love for football that started in his teenage years. Renowned as the best player in his school and the entire Asikafoabantem community, he dazzled on the field. His passion for the sport never waned, as he continued to inspire and guide his sons, who followed in his footsteps as footballers although none took it up professionally. He spent cherished moments with them on the football field, offering advice and encouragement after matches, and occasionally playing football with them at home for fun.

As a family man, he was the epitome of love and care, leaving a lasting impression on his wife, six children, and all who crossed his path. His presence in their lives was a beacon of strength and support, and his dedication to being there for his family was steadfast.

On 30th May 2023, Kojo's untimely death left his family and loved ones in shock and sorrow. It was a blow to us all. How we wished you stayed longer with us.

Your wife, children, siblings, nephews, nieces and the entire family will miss you dearly.

Rest well in the bosom of our Lord till we meet again.

Dayie Kojo Dayie!!!!!!

TRIBUTE BY WIFE

For whether we live, we live unto the Lord; and whether we die, we die unto the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's. (Romans 14:8)

As I reflect upon the beautiful years we spent together, my heart overflows with gratitude for the immense impact you had on my life. Our journey together began in 1987 when our paths closed within the walls of the Musama Disco Christo church in Takoradi. Little did we know that this chance of meeting would lay the foundation for our love story.

We started as friends, gradually realizing that our bond ran much deeper than mere companionship. Our friendship blossomed into a love so pure and profound that it compelled us to make the sacred commitment of marriage. The day we exchanged our vows was an embodiment of the profound love that bound us together and a celebration of the heartfelt promises we joyfully exchanged.

The Lord blessed us with the gift of two wonderful sons, and our lives were forever changed by the joy and laughter they brought into our home. Every milestone, every cherished moment, was a testament to the love we nurtured as parents and the beautiful family we built together.

We started as friends, gradually realizing that our bond ran much deeper than mere companionship.

In 1990, duty called, and you had to move to Accra as a building contractor. The distance that separated us was a painful reminder of the sacrifices we made for the betterment of our family. But love knows no boundaries, and even though you were physically absent, our hearts remained intertwined. Your fortnightly visits were moments of sheer bliss, as we cherished the time we spent together, knowing that our love could withstand any distance.

Finally, in 1993, I made the decision to join you in Accra. Together, we created a haven filled with joy, love and laughter. The Lord blessed us with four more children, completing our family in a way only divine grace could have orchestrated.

Our journey together wasn't always smooth sailing; we faced challenges that tested our bond and sometimes made us feel like drifting apart. Throughout the highs and lows, we both tried to navigate life's complexities and understand our emotions better. Despite the struggles, there were moments filled with tenderness and understanding, reminding us of the love that initially united us.

Our journey together wasn't always smooth sailing; we faced challenges that tested our bond and sometimes made us feel like drifting apart.

As I bid you farewell, I take comfort in the fact that we had a life brimming with love, joy, and satisfaction. Our love story will always stand as a proof of the strength of a profound and enduring bond. The memories we made, the laughter we shared, and the love we nurtured will forever hold a special place in my heart.

Though my heart aches for your presence, I take comfort in knowing that you are in a better place, free from pain and suffering. Your legacy lives on through our children, who carry your spirit and your love within them. We will continue to honour your memory by living our lives to the fullest, just as you would have wanted.

Our time together may have been cut short, but the impact you made on my life will last an eternity. Until we meet again, know that my love for you remains steadfast, and your presence will forever be felt in my heart.

Rest well Kojo, May the Lord keep you in His bosom till we meet again.

Amen!!!

*"And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose."
Romans 8:28*

In the depths of sorrow, we gather here today to remember the soul of an extraordinary man who left an indelible mark on our lives, Our beloved Dad. He was a source of immense love, care and wisdom, and was more than just a parent to us. He was a mentor, a friend and a guiding light who instilled in us the love for God and His work, a profound appreciation for music and taught us to play the piano. Through the melodies and rhythms of music, he gave us a language to express our emotions.

In times of distress, he would gather us close, hold our hands and say a heartfelt prayer, reminding us of the strength that comes from having faith and love in our lives.

TRIBUTE FROM MUSAMA DISCO CHRISTO CHURCH - BUBUASHIE CIRCUIT

O magnify the Lord with me, let us exalt His name together; when in distress I called Him, and He answered and delivered me. (MHB 427)

We are gathered here today to celebrate the home calling of a staunch member of the Musama Disco Christo Church, Madina branch, the late Elder Robert Daniels.

Elder Daniels, as he was affectionately called, was a strong pillar of the Madina branch and one of the outspoken personalities in our circuit.

He served as a Porter to the Bubuashie circuit of the Musama Church, and his contributions during circuit meetings were highly commendable. Elder Daniels was a respected personality who commanded respect at both the station and circuit levels.

Elder Daniels was a respected personality who commanded respect at both the station and circuit levels.

On Friday, 12th May 2023, during an all-night service at Madina branch, he made a passionate statement, and I quote, "It will be sad and painful for my burial and thanksgiving Service to be held in a classroom"

He was expressing his strong emotions concerning land issues in Madina Musama Church. Sadly, barely two weeks after, on 30th May 2023, he was called to eternal rest. Elder Daniels, the circuit appreciates your gallant efforts in the growth of the Musama Church. Your life among us will always be remembered.

We salute you, and may your gentle soul rest in the bosom of our Lord in perfect peace.
AMEN!!!

TRIBUTE FROM THE MUSAMA DISCO CHRISTO CHURCH -MADINA STATION

For we know that if the earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens. (2 Cor 5:1)

Elder Robert joined Madina Musama Church in 1990. Owing to his dedication and outspoken nature, he was appointed as the Station Church Elder in 1992. He played a pivotal role in the establishment of the Madina Singing Ministry in 1993.

Under his inspiring leadership, the church community flourished, attracting numerous new members. The church's growth was so remarkable that in 1996, a new branch named Nkwantanang Branch was inaugurated. In the absence of a pastor, he took on the responsibility as the Presiding Elder and the Acting Worker of the Nkwantanang branch for several years.

In 2005, the Nkwantanang branch merged with the Madina branch after the passing of the Rev S.K. Mensah, the Madina Station Pastor, on whose compound the Madina Branch Service was held. The amalgamated congregation became the new Madina Station, and he was entrusted with the position of Station Elder, leading the church through this transition without a resident pastor.

Eventually, in 2006, the station was blessed with a resident pastor, Pastor Afari. The following year, in 2007, recognizing his exceptional leadership abilities, he was appointed as the Circuit Elder of the Accra East Circuit. This circuit comprised several churches, including Labadi, Haatso, Dome, Teshie No 1, Teshie No 2, Nungua, and Madina Station and served for 4 years.

He served as the Elder of the Madina branch from 1992 to 2007 until he was elected as the Circuit Elder. In 2010, the Church made the decision to join the Bubuashie Circuit, primarily for the sake of proximity and convenience. During this transition, a new individual was elected as the Station Elder to lead and oversee the congregation.

He served as the Elder of the Madina branch from 1992 to 2007 until he was elected as the Circuit Elder.

He was re-elected as the Madina Station Elder in 2017. He was also appointed as the Porter for the Bubuashie Circuit in 2020. He held these positions till his demise.

Throughout his journey as a leader, he demonstrated hard work, dedication, and a deep commitment to nurturing and guiding the spiritual growth of his fellow congregants.

He was a pillar of strength and wisdom, always ready to offer a listening ear and a comforting word to those in need. He embodied the true spirit of a servant-leader, leading by example and always putting the needs of others before his own.

His commitment to our church community was unwavering. For years, he stood as a beacon of faith and hope, nurturing the spiritual growth of countless individuals. His love for God and passion for spreading His message were evident in every aspect of his life.

He carried the weight of responsibility with grace and humility. He led with compassion and understanding, gently guiding us through both joyous and challenging times. His prayers were a source of comfort, and his guidance provided direction during moments of uncertainty. His legacy of leadership and service will forever be cherished by the church community he served with love and devotion.

Beyond his role, he was a friend and mentor to many. His warm smile and kind heart made everyone feel welcomed and valued. He was a source of inspiration, and his life was a testament to the transformative power of faith and love

He would always raise this hymn “Mmere Jesus ne dzin bia yedew” when he was given the opportunity to preach. Oh Elder, Nyame mfa wo kra nsie ye.

Today, as we bid you farewell, we take comfort in knowing that you found eternal peace in the arms of the Lord. Your legacy will forever be etched in the foundation of the church, and your spirit will continue to guide us as we walk the path of faith.

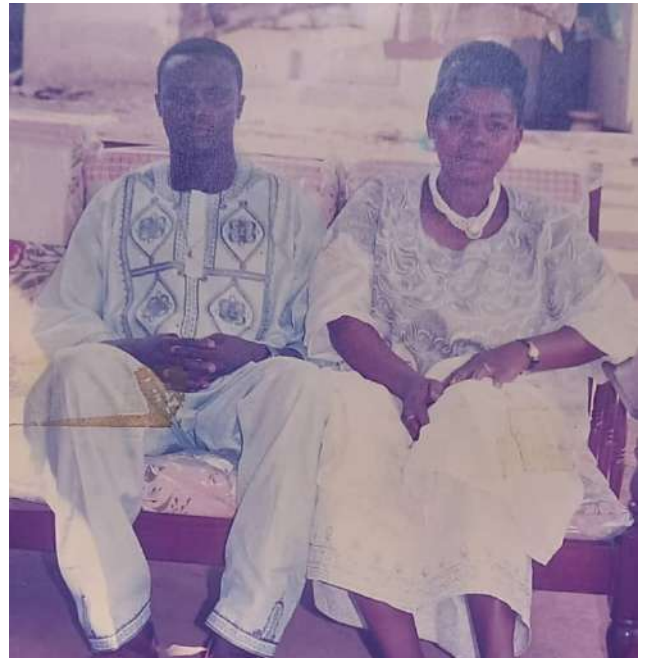

Rest in peace, dear Elder. Your presence will be deeply missed, but your impact on our lives will never be forgotten. Until we meet again, may your soul rest in the embrace of God's love.
